

The Post Office

Here you will identify what a post office is used for and what can be found inside a post office.

Read the passage:

A post office is a place that mails off letters and packages. A post office sells stamps, boxes, and envelopes to help people put together their mail. Many streets have blue post office drop containers to place mail in for the post office worker to pick up. The post office also provides inside mailboxes to use instead of the mailbox at your home. You can find a post office in every city or town.
