

Articles

“A” and “An”

When to use “A” and “An”. Here is a simple clue: use “an” before a word that starts with a vowel letter. Use “a” before a word that begins with a consonant letter. Examples; 1) The dog ate a bone 2) There is an ant on the rock.

Directions: Write which article goes before each word.

1. egg = _____

6. bat = _____

2. horse = _____

7. book = _____

3. ant = _____

8. toy = _____

4. igloo = _____

9. table = _____

5. apple = _____

10. elephant = _____

©2014 Dill Purple Geniuses Media

www.dillpurplegeniuses.com